

BE AN ANGEL HELPER VOLUNTEER

Being an angel helper is not always fun or comfortable, but nothing about fighting childhood cancer is ever easy. However, the rewards are great and your life will be forever changed when you experience the difference you make in the life of a family in crisis.

Only you can determine how to best use your talents, time and financial support. Please consider how you might help:

- Volunteer with projects and events
- Volunteer time with families
- Become a prayer partner
- Become an advocate
- Adopt-A-Family for the Holidays
- Help us reach out to groups/events for possible speaking engagements

Adam Christian Culliver

FOUNDED OUT OF LOVE & UNDERSTANDING

Unless you've faced the challenges of having a child with cancer, it is almost impossible to comprehend the devastation families experience. Just ask Donna and Tim Culliver. In January 2003, they lost their four-year-old son, Adam, to Acute Myelogenous Leukemia.

The Culliver's know the day-to-day realities of what families must learn to cope with from their own personal tragedy. Juggling emotional and spiritual pain with family and financial obligations is overwhelming.

Adam's Angels Ministry was founded in 2004 out of a deep understanding and compassion for families battling childhood cancer.

MORE THAN A MISSION IT'S A CALLING

Adam's Angels Ministry is called to provide care and comfort through physical, emotional, financial and spiritual support. We take our name 'Angels' seriously as we assist those in need and band with others who join our efforts in the crusade against childhood cancer. Our mission:

- A AWARENESS in the community
- N NEEDS of the stricken families
- G GIVING from the heart
- E ENCOURAGEMENT for others to help
- L LOVE for the children
- S SERVING with faith and hope

HOW WE ARE MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Delivering Comfort & Hope

Childhood cancer families we encounter are given prompt attention. Once we learn the needs of the child and family, our ANGELS jump into action. Prayer is often our first step. Most often, a child or parent appreciates a caring person to spend time with them.

Your donations enable us to assist cancer families with living expenses, meals, transportation, and medical parking fees. Donations, no matter how small, can help save a family's home or car, or shoulder some of the burden to make their battle a little easier.

Spreading the Spirit of Christmas Joy

Each December, Adam's Angels Ministry shares the joy of the season with many childhood cancer patients.

Our ANGEL HELPERS:

- Hold community toy drives for children whose parents can't afford gifts.
- Host the annual Christmas party at Children's Oncology Group hospital.
- Adopt-A-Family program for Christmas delivering gifts to uplift families with a spirit of love and hope.

- Keep in touch all year long with calls and visits, demonstrating the loving spirit of Christ.

Advocacy Across the Country

Adam's Angels Ministry advocates for childhood cancer both locally and nationally.

- Promotes September as Childhood Cancer Awareness Month
- Participates in local networking with Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Family Alliance.
- United on a state-level advocating for medical, educational and social issues.
- Participates in the Annual Childhood Cancer Summit in Washington D.C. to discuss federal efforts to combat childhood cancers.

Annual Fund Raiser

The giving hearts of our sponsors make our annual Adam's Angels 5K Dash possible. It's held the first Saturday in October and includes a scenic run, dash, walk or stroll with music, a raffle and of course, Blue Bell Ice Cream. The highlight is the childhood cancer patient and family walk which starts the event. Early registration begins August 1. Visit our website for Sponsorship Opportunities.
